Attachment A to Plaintiff's (Taylor Heath) Claim SC-100

3a. Why does the defendant owe the plaintiff money?

I was living in my tent at Taylor and Eddy Street and on the morning of December 27th, 2022, I woke up suddenly because someone was shaking my tent and I heard cops outside my tent telling us that we had to vacate the area. I stepped out of my tent and the DPW, SFPD, SFFD, and the HOT team were all there and DPW workers were throwing people's tents and stuff into the back of a DPW garbage truck. There were no notices posted prior to this sweep. I frantically tried to pack up but when I tried to go back into my tent to get as much stuff as I could, the cops told me to stand back and don't interfere with the city doing their job. I pleaded with them to let me pack my stuff but no one listened and the SFPD was enforcing that we leave our tents and not interfere with DPW's job of cleaning the street. I had to just watch as the city threw all my possessions and my shelter away. They didn't bag and tag anything either, so I knew I would never see my stuff again.

This sweep left me without shelter and with nothing. I felt hopeless because I would have to start over again and I didn't know where I was going to sleep. I felt so violated and I felt like the city government did not care about me and that if they could throw me away too, they would. I believe my fourth 8th and 14th amendment rights were violated so I'm filing this claim to be compensated for my losses and my suffering.

3c. How did you calculate the money owed to you?

I composed a list of my property that was seized by the city and thrown away. I gave each item a dollar value based on the current market value for these things. I priced everything according to what would be the cost to replace what I lost.

Item	Dollar Value
Tent	$170
Sleeping Bag and Blankets	$150
Air Mattress	$80
Air mattress pump	$35
Tumi Suitcase	$1,300
Clothes: Jeans, shirts, underwear, sweats, sweaters, Jackets	$1,600
Coleman camp stove w fuel	$100
Igloo Cooler	$50
Timbuk2 backpack	$180
Adidas Sneakers	$90
